

LOCAL MOVIE INDUSTRY ANNOUNCEMENT

The Victoria Film School Happily Welcomes

KATHERINE BILLINGS

The Victoria Motion Picture School has announced that Katherine Billings will head up the school's September Acting Program as Artist in Residence. Ms. Billings brings her extensive acting and coaching experience to the job.

Katherine's resume is very solid – she was trained at Northwestern University, U.C.L.A., The London Academy of Music and Dramatic Arts as well as with David Craig, Robert Lewis & Stella Adler. She has coached actors on shows such as Wonder Years, X Files, Stargate and DaVinci's Inquest, as well as the movie Bull Durham. Her awards roll is equally impressive, as she's received kudos from The US Film Festival, the International C.I.N.E. and the LA Drama Critics. She also is the owner of Katherine Billings Productions, she serves on the National Advisory Board for the William Inge Center for the Arts, and is the newly appointed Artistic Director of the Los Angeles Repertory Company.

According to the school, Ms. Billings' Master Seminars will emphasize "camera wisdom," "acting craft" and the technical skills necessary for careers in the entertainment industry. Without a doubt, her expertise will add an additional jewel in the Victoria Motion Picture School's crown.
